Zedillo Key to End of Prop. 187.

“As leader of the state Assembly, I say President Zedillo had great impact in defeating Proposition 187,” Villaraigosa told a news conference after he and a state delegation met with the Mexican chief executive. (L.A. Times, Aug. 4, 1999)

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR, LOS ANGELES TIMES, SUNDAY, AUGUST 8, 1999

What am I missing here? Assembly Speaker Antonio Villaraigosa thanks Mexico’s President Ernesto Zedillo for helping kill Proposition 187, which denied benefits to Mexicans who broke our laws to live in California illegally... We know who Zedillo works for. But who does Villaraigosa work for?
DOREEN HIRSCHFELD

When I opened the paper Wednesday morning, I could not believe what I saw and read. The world must have turned upside down. How can an elected speaker of the California Assembly applaud the president of a foreign country for meddling in our politics and thwarting the will of the people of California? ... We need to ask him where his loyalty lies—with the Mexican people or the people of California?

ANTONIO VILLARAIGOSA: AZTLAN OR BUST

Some claim “Aztlán” is the territory “stolen” from Mexico by the United States. It was not, and the Aztecs never set foot in California.

“I have proudly affirmed that the Mexican nation extends beyond the territory enclosed by its borders.” Mexican President Zedillo. (Speech to National Council of La Raza, Chicago, July 27, 1997)⁵

Villaraigosa was chairman of UCLA MEChA (Movimiento Estudiantil Chicano de Aztlán),¹ a group dedicated to “the self-determination of the Chicano people for the purpose of liberating Aztlán.”² He has never repudiated its goals.

Villaraigosa was a writer for Sin Fronteras (Without Borders), a vicious anti-American propaganda organ for Chicano separatists.³

Villaraigosa was the only California politician who dared to join in the 1996 March on Washington that demanded amnesty for illegal aliens.⁴ He proudly stood on the stage surrounded by the Brown Berets, the militant foot soldiers of the Aztlán movement.⁵ The March was organized by Juan Jose Gutierrez of One Stop Immigration (now with SEIU) and led by a band from the Mexican Army.⁴ Gutierrez introduced keynote speaker Mexican lawyer Jose Jacques Medina, founder of Sin Fronteras, who proclaimed “This is my land! This is my fight!”⁵ when demanding amnesty for illegal aliens. MEChA was a prominent participant.⁴

Villaraigosa joined with Mexican President Zedillo and Gov. Gray Davis to kill Proposition 187 before it could reach the Supreme Court because they were afraid it was constitutional.⁶ Yet, in 1999, Villaraigosa said, “When the will of the people has been ruled unconstitutional, the will of the people is null and void.”⁵ after keeping it away from the Supreme Court.

DRIVERS LICENSES FOR ILLEGAL ALIENS

“It’s not enough to elect Latino leadership. If they’re supporting legislation that denies drivers licenses to the undocumented they don’t belong in office, friends. They don’t belong here.”
-- Antonio Villaraigosa (1997)⁵

Do we need one million more drivers on Los Angeles freeways?

- HE SOUGHT A PARDON FOR CONVICTED DRUG DEALER CARLOS VIGNALLI
- HE HELPED BRING THE POWER DISASTER TO CALIFORNIA
- HE IS SOFT ON CRIME

AND NOW....HIS UNION FRIENDS THREATEN LOS ANGELES

Reporter: “Is there any chance that the unions will shut down Los Angeles to gain this amnesty?”
Villaraigosa ally, Juan Jose Gutierrez (SEIU-AFL/CIO):
“Whatever it takes to pass this law will be done.”⁵

WHO PAID FOR THIS AD? WHY IS IT BEING RUN?

This ad was paid for by hundreds of donations to AmericanPatrol.com, a part of Voice of Citizens Together. We have been running full-page ads against illegal immigration in Los Angeles newspapers for seven years. This is nothing new for us. We are not a part of the Hahn campaign and have not communicated with them in any way. Why? We are experts. We know what is going on here, and we have an obligation to tell the American People what we know. If you want to help tell this story, do it with financial support. It is not tax-deductible. We promise to use it for the campaign. Otherwise, prepare to be a victim.

These people want amnesty for 11 million illegal aliens. Do you?

This is a snapshot taken by AmericanPatrol.com at the Rally for Amnesty held at the Los Angeles Sports Arena on June 10, 2000. It drew 20,000 people, including Antonio Villaraigosa, Day Higuchi, head of the United Teachers of Los Angeles (UTLA), Representatives Berman and Sanchez, and L.A. City Councilman Alex Padilla.⁴ If they get their way, up to 11 million illegal aliens could become citizens⁷ bringing in millions more by family reunification. Using taxpayer funds, L.A. teachers support the wholesale invasion of the United States for their own personal gain.

Antonio Villaraigosa wants amnesty for all illegal aliens. Do you?

“Do we need a mayor whose public record strongly suggests his primary loyalty is to an ethnic group, including illegal aliens, instead of all Americans?”
